Patron of Eugene School - Boda

Saint Eugène de Mazenod (1782–1861) was a French Catholic bishop and founder of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. His early life was marked by hardship due to French Revolution and lived as a refugee in Italy. He became a priest and dedicated himself to helping the poor, prisoners, and youth. In 1816, Eugene founded the order to evangelize rural France, which later became the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. His mission expanded internationally, reaching Canada, the United States, England, Ireland, Africa, and Asia. He was appointed Bishop of Marseille in 1837 and later Archbishop in 1851. Eugene died on 21 May 1861, was beatified in 1975 and canonized in 1995.

The Catholic Church honors him with an optional memorial on May 21. Pope John Paul II called him a "Man of Advent," highlighting his dedication through his missionary work. Saint Eugène de Mazenod's teachings emphasize faith, service, and missionary zeal, like; advocacy and Love for the Poor and Marginalized, Missionary Spirit, Commitment to Holiness, Community and Brotherhood and Devotion to Mary. His teachings continue to inspire missionaries and social justice efforts within the Catholic Church today. About Eugene School - Boda “Leave nothing undared – to strive for the highest excellence” – goes as the predecessor-statement of motivation from our Founder St. Eugene to establish this educational institute at Boda. “We must lead people to act like human-beings first of all, then Christians and finally saints....

‘education-ministry’ is a means for a break-through in this concern”

– an inspiration from St. Eugene, the patron saint of our School, Boda.

In pursuit of wisdom, knowledge and excellence, Saint Eugene English Medium Higher Secondary School at Boda, Block-Batauli, district- Surguja, is a minority Mission school, Co-Ed., managed by Roman Catholic Christian Missionary Fathers of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate (OMI), through a registered Society of Eugene Foundations - Boda, for the noble cause of educational purposes and charitable activities. So, as a Catholic Christian Minority Institution, the School comes under the Governing Body of The Society of Eugene Foundations at Boda.

Saint Eugene: A Visionary Pioneer of Oblate Education

Saint Eugene of France, the inspiring founder of the OMI Society, recognized education as a catalyst for social justice and transformation. He empowered youth and families to equip themselves for meaningful roles in society, fostering a just and equitable world. By identifying marginalized groups as society's most vulnerable and abandoned, Saint Eugene and his followers, the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, believed that education could organize, motivate, and integrate individuals of all ages into responsible citizens. Later, inspired by Saint Eugen, their beloved founder, who was also the Bishop of Marseilles, France, the Oblates ventured into innovative educational initiatives across 72 countries.

These initiatives, including schools, colleges, universities, technical and vocational institutions, youth empowerment organizations, children and women's empowerment organizations, social justice initiatives, and centers of higher education, Psychological and family counselling etc. had a profound impact on countless lives. As we journey through the complexities of the 21st century, Saint Eugene's enduring legacy continues to inspire us. His vision of using education as an empowering tool to build a better future remains as relevant as ever for generations to come in future.

By following in his footsteps, we can harness the transformative power of education to address global challenges and create a more just and equitable world.

“St. Eugene English Medium Higher Secondary School”, is the name of the School at Boda. “SEEMHSS” is the short and sweet abbreviation of the expansion of Saint Eugene English Medium Higher Secondary School.

SEEMHSS Boda was established on 1st of July 2007 at Boda village of Surguja district, in simple and humble sheeted or roofed structure and later it became a big premises and converted gradually to the present magnanimous new permanent infrastructures.

We follow the State Syllabus of the CG Government and NCERT for Higher Secondary sections. Our School is a Private Co-Educational Roman Catholic Institution with Minority status.

Primarily, the School is governed by the School Governing Body, represented by the General Manager (GM) who is also the Provincial and the President of OMI Group of Educational, Vocational and Training Institutions throughout India and DGM, the Deputy General Manager coordinates as the Councilor for Ministries.

Secondly, the School Managing Committee (SMC) is represented by the local District Superior of the OMI Society in CG. Thirdly the School Staff and Parents-Teachers-Association (PTA) carry out the duties. “English-English-English”, is the one and only medium of communication within the school premises. The School gives a creative attention to the mother tongue Hindi the national Language, alongwith Sanskrit, the traditional language.

School bus/transport services are provided by the local parents or private individuals to the children in the morning and evening. The special academic focus is towards Mathematics, Science and Spoken English. The daily Moral instructions and disciplinary advices in the morning assemblies and in classes help the students to be responsible students of today and citizens of tomorrow.

We provide extracurricular activities, like, arts-music, singing, drama, cultural and folk dances alongwith sports, games, PET and drill-exercises. Weekly instructions on health and hygiene help the students to enjoy good health. We follow a decent school attire and school uniform.

The children enjoy a fresh air in the huge and eco-friendly campus with spacious class-rooms and comfortable furniture, and with basic rural and traditional outlook. SEEMHSS Boda provides a multi-religious and social ambiance for all the children of this region. We have a good school management with experienced and qualified teaching and non-teaching staff who sacrifice their life for the future of the kids. Thanks to the management and teachers for their commendable commitment and thus giving the students a “valuable and quality education for life”.

Indeed, the SEEMHSS children are very happy, proud and privileged to receive a holistic education in this most reputed, and progressive educational institution of Boda, Surguja district.

St. Eugene School at Boda:

A Beacon of Knowledge and Hope to illuminate the Rural Villages of Surguja District - CG

Nestled amidst the serene landscapes of Boda villages, St. Eugene School – Boda, stands as a testament to the power of international Oblate education. The school is established in the name of Saint Eugene, the beloved patron of our school at Boda village of Surguja district, CG. More than just a school, Saint Eugene School at Boda village is a beacon of hope, knowledge and opportunity, empowering young minds from Nursery to Higher Secondary to dream big and achieve their full potential as per Saint Eugene’s vision for all children.

Eugene School – Boda is located on the main road connecting Batauli (Surguja district) and Bagicha (Jaspur district). Boda village is situated 10km away from sub-district headquarter Batauli (tehsildar office) and 45 km away from district headquarter Ambikapur. Ambikapur is inhabited by people from across India. Moderate weather makes it an attractive place for settlement. Unlike the capital, the district population comprises aboriginal populations including the Pandos and Korwas, who still live in rural areas. Ambikapur is home to a large number of Tibetan migrants who took refuge in India after the Chinese annexation of Tibet in 1959.

This Oblate school at Boda serves as a vital educational hub for the surrounding communities of rural villages as well as nearby towns at Batauli Block of Surguja district. St. Eugene School – Boda, plays a pivotal role in shaping the future of Boda and its neighboring villages. By providing quality education, the School Management, dedicated faculty and supportive staff together create a nurturing environment that fosters academic excellence and personal growth for all children from Nursery to Higher secondary level.

Boda, a gram panchayat in Surguja district, offers a tranquil setting. With a population about 1,821, the village is home to a diverse community. While agriculture remains the primary occupation, the increasing literacy rate of 53.43% reflects a growing aspiration for education in Boda village. Other villages are Telaidhar, Bagicha, Mahespur, Kailash Kufa, Maini, Chichili etc.

Surguja District: A Rich Cultural Heritage for Eugene School - Boda

Surguja district, with its rich cultural heritage and stunning natural beauty, offers a unique backdrop for St. Eugene School - Boda. The district's diverse tribal communities, lush forests, and historical sites contribute to its vibrant character. Surguja district is located in the northern part of Chhattisgarh State of India.

Borders of Uttar Pradesh, Jharkhand, Orissa and Madhya Pradesh States are adjoining to the district. Major population comprises tribal population. Among these primitive tribes are Pando and Korwa, who are still living in forest.

A number of waterfalls are located in the district, like Pavai fall near Kothali village (Balampur) etc. Dharima Airport which is 15 kms from Ambikapur adds another developmental feature to our district. Main rivers that connect and enrich the district are Kanhar, Moran, Rihand (Rend or Rehar) and Mahanadi Basin.

The climate of district is characterized by a hot summer and well distributed rainfall during the monsoon season. The district is about 700 km from ocean therefore oceanic effect still remains zero. Physiographically, the Mountains (high lands), the Plateaus and Hills (uplands) and the Central plain are remarkable land-forms.

The major peaks of the district are, the Mainpat, the Jarangpat, the Jonka pat, the Jamira pat and the Lahsunpat.

Thus, Surguja district, where Eugene School - Boda is situated, boasts a fascinating history and a diverse landscape. With its expansive forests, ancient temples, and rich cultural heritage, the district offers a unique blend of natural beauty and historical significance.

St. Eugene School, Boda, by being a part of this vibrant district, contributes to its educational and social development. As St. Eugene School continues to flourish, it plays a pivotal role in shaping the future of Boda and Surguja district.

By providing a strong foundation in education, the school empowers its students to become responsible citizens and contribute to the growth and development of their community and nation.

As you step into the gates of St. Eugene School - Boda, you'll discover a world of endless possibilities for a holistic education as per NEP 2020.
